"Summertime, and the livin' is easy..." .That line say's it all.

All the beaches, bays and pools still left in the system have opened for the season, with increased staffing levels at the two of the four pools still open. We have had a new rookie class conclude training, (thanks to our training crew for stepping up!) and everyone has been placed. Due in part to our continuing Leave of Absence program, we were able to add quite a few new guards including Junior Lifeguard program graduates, returning alumni, and some who
